

Article Submitted to Whig Standard, March 17, 2007
Written by Lucia Chown

Ernestown Barracudas are proud to be sending 3 senior national swimmers with coach Gord Emmerson to the 2007 Spring National Championships in Victoria, B.C. Swimmers Elizabeth Wycliffe, Jessika Craig, and Pamela Ruksys will be competing for a spot on 2 Canadian National teams with Canada's top swimmers for a chance to represent Canada at the 2007 Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil in July. In addition to acting as the selection meet for the Pan American games in Rio, the 2007 Pan American games swimming trials will act as the selection meet for the 2007 Universiade (World University Games) to be held in Bangkok, Thailand in August.

The 2007 Pan American Trials will take place at Saanich Commonwealth Place from March 21 – 25.